Faouzia is a Trainee Solicitor and fully Police Station Accredited. She is currently assisting with Crown Court casework under the supervision of Nicola Hall. Faouzia is determined to ensure the best results of her clients.

Faouzia has been praised by clients and counsels for her surgical analysis of the issues that arise in complex Crown Court cases. Faouzia is particularly passionate to assist clients with serious mental health issues.

Prior joining to the firm, Faouzia was an active member at the Kent Law Clinic. She also completed a prestigious legal internship at Guernica 37 International Justice where she assisted chambers on international criminal law matters, prison law and Parole Board appeals. Faouzia also volunteered as a Pro-Bono caseworker in a notable charity Intervene Project. Faouzia assisted prisoners in matters concerning medical negligence, property disputes and mistreatment from prisoner officers.

Faouzia is highly motivated to ensure that clients receive a fair trial and criminal defence.
